

LETS GO TO THE CINEMA!!

In 6th year we've watched an old film: "The parent trap (1961)".

We've enjoyed the film very much and we've done a summary. Here we have some of them:

The parent Trap

Sharon and Susan are two young girls.

They are in a Summer camp. At first, they don't recognise each other. In fact, they are always disturbing each other. So, the teachers decide to put them together in order they work together.

They discover they are sisters and they decide to make a plan: they will go with the other parent.

Later, the girl who is with the mother tells all the plan to the mother. They go to California to change the daughters.

But the two girls return to make a plan in order the parents could be together again.

But the father has already a new girlfriend.

The mother and the daughters disturb once and other time the father because they don't like his girlfriend.

One day, the father goes home and discovers what is really happening: the mother and the daughter want him again.

So, they finally make a plan in order the father's girlfriend let him alone: they go to an excursion, the girls disturb the father's girlfriend and she hit them. The father sees it and leaves the girlfriend alone and they return to be a family.

THE PARENT TRAP

This film is about two girls who went to a camp, one was called Sharon and the other Susan. One day they got a punishment because they destroyed the dance of that night, since they did not like each other. The punishment was that they had to be together in a cabin for a whole month and by several coincidences they discovered that they are twins. As they lived in different cities they decided to change when the camp was finished, so that each one could meet the rest of their family and also so that they had to return each one to their house their parents could fall in love again. When Sharon went to California she found out that her father had a new girlfriend. Susan had to tell her mother that it was not Sharon, to go to California and be able to make her parents fall in love again, and make it impossible to her father's girlfriend. In the end, her parents fell in love because her father's girlfriend went crazy with the twins.
